BOY'S DE

NEWTON FERRERS

Bustles, whiskers and waitresses were the order of the evening at Newton Ferrers W.I. hall on Saturday, when 'Old Tyme Music Hall' came back with an appropriate flourish.

Lively music was provided by pianists Mrs. Helen Laird and Mrs. Joyce Meredith, and artists included Mrs. Amelia Rainbird, the two small Misses Laird, Mrs. Lilian Hele, Mr. Frank Marston, Mrs. Myrtle Hockaday, producer, Mrs. Prue Cosham, Mrs. Molly Denner and Mrs. Pat Endicott.

Newton and Noss W.I. President Mrs. Crossley thanked everyone who took part, particularly behind-the-scenes helpers including Mrs. John Pulman, Mrs. Freda White and Mrs. Babs Maxey.

Gaiety in gaslight

The gaslight and Gaiety Girls era was recalled at Newton Ferrers on Saturday when Newton and Noss W.I. held an Old Tyme Music Hall in robust style. Moustache-twirling Master of Ceremonies Wilfrid Cosham looks suitably delighted with his bevy of Edwardian beauty — Anne Elliott, Joyce Meredith and Pat Endicott.
