

1944

The W.I. kept busy by "Knitting for Occupied Europe". Comforts were sent to the troops. In anticipation of the war's end, flags were bought for Victory Day.

A New Zealand sailor's overcoat was stolen from the Cloakroom during a dance, and the W.I. paid for its replacement.

Membership

totalled 50.

Roof repaired.