

1929

Money was sent from the Institute to the distressed Miners' fund.

Appeal made to the Council against the rates being "nearly doubled".

A trip was organised on the Kitley Belle at a cost of 6d. per head, + 6d. for tea!

Vandalism again broke out + the cloakrooms had to be kept locked.

Stove purchased, water in kitchen and lamps for kitchen, gents'
and ladies' cloakroom.

Large table purchased.

Stage curtains purchased.

Dances and Socials held.
